

2017 FirstWorks Arts Learning Matinees

Watch, Learn, Do!

Please join us for powerful, live performance experiences your students will never forget!

PAUL TAYLOR DANCE COMPANY
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 12:30-1:30 PM
THE VETS 1 Avenue of the Arts, Providence

This matinee celebrates Paul Taylor, America's greatest living choreographer, through a performance of selections from his masterworks set to music by Bach and Handel. Students will be entranced by the dancers' grace and athleticism. The matinee concludes with a question and answer period. An accompanying Teacher Resource Guide will be available.

AREAS OF CONTENT INTEGRATION

Dance, Music, Choreography and Technique

RENNIE HARRIS PUREMOVEMENT
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 10-11:00 AM
THE VETS 1 Avenue of the Arts, Providence

This exciting educational program honors the vivid, living history of the global hip-hop phenomenon and celebrates its potential to make meaningful contributions to American culture. Illustrated through historical film and dance performed to the beats of a live DJ, this multimedia event traces the evolution of contemporary hip-hop from its roots in African ritual and ancient traditions.

AREAS OF CONTENT INTEGRATION

Great for Black History Month!

Poetry, Songwriting, Dance, Music, Oral History and Cultural Identity

Teacher Resource Guide Available

FIRSTWORKS IMMERSION PARTNER SCHOOLS

$5 student tickets with one complimentary teacher/chaperone ticket for every 20 students

ALL OTHER SCHOOLS

$10 student tickets with one complimentary teacher/chaperone ticket for every 20 students

FOR INFO CONTACT KATHLEEN MCAREAVEY: KATHLEENM@FIRST-WORKS.ORG

FIRSTWORKS

CONNECTING ART WITH AUDIENCES

FIRST-WORKS.ORG